GIVE PARTNERSHIP
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Question 1: Can my friends and family members who are not a part of NBCA also become a GIVE Partner?
Answer: Yes, the GIVE Partnership program is open to anyone who wishes to support the convention.

Question 2: If I get a new debit or credit card number, what should I do?
Answer: Please contact NBCA headquarters ((844) 610-6222) so that we are aware that you will be restarting GIVE, and you can continue to receive credit for your previous payments.

Question 3: Can I join GIVE right before an annual meeting?
Answer: Yes, you can join GIVE at any time; however, to be considered an active GIVE Partner, you must have paid at least 3 consecutive GIVE payments to get the benefits of being a GIVE Partner.

Question 4: If I am a pastor and my church is on GIVE, do I still have to sign up as an individual?
Answer: Yes, even if your church is on GIVE, pastors are asked to still join as an individual.

Question 5: Is there a way that I don't have to log online monthly to make my GIVE donation?
Answer: Yes, you can select recurring payments and your payment will automatically be deducted monthly, so you don't have to worry about being current.

Question 6: Is paying monthly the only option to pay?
Answer: No, you can pay monthly, semi-annually, or annually.

Question 7: Can I pay more than the monthly amount?
Answer: Yes, you can pay more as an individual, church, association, or state convention.

Question 8: Can I mail in a payment and where should I mail it?
Answer: Yes, you can mail in your GIVE payment to the Office of the Treasurer

National Baptist Convention of America Int'l, Inc.
c/o: Office of the Treasurer
1000 S. 4th Street
Louisville, KY 40203

Question 9: If I mail in a payment, do I need to include any additional information?
Answer: Yes, please download the mail in GIVE Partnership form on our website (www.nbcainc.com) so the Office of the Treasurer can have all of your information.
